

“Mastering the MAP Website”

- ___ 1. Go to www.nwea.org (can goggle nwea)
 - ___ 2. Click on Member Support at top right
 - ___ 3. Click on Results and Reports on far right in red box
 - ___ 4. Click on NWEA Report Sites on far right in brown box
 - ___ 5. Click YES in center of page for password
 - ___ 6. Enter User Name: sample district
Password: sample
 - ___ 7. Look at Menu list on far left side. Scroll down.
What choices of interest do you see?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
 - ___ 8. As you scroll down, find DesCartes. Click on it.
 - ___ 9. What test choices are available from the three-column box in the middle of the page?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - ___ 10. Choose a test of interest to you (Math 6+ or Reading)
 - ___ 11. Select a sub-test or area of skills analysis
 - ___ 12. Select the RIT score band (201-210) as shown on the student’s report of class summary.
 - ___ 13. Notice the continuum of skill bands for growth, grouping, and instructional planning.
 - ___ 14. Left column marked “enhanced”= 75% proficiency
Middle column marked “developed” = 50% proficiency
Right column marked “introduce”= 25% proficiency and give us key to helping students grow.
 - ___ 15. Take a few more minutes and “play around in this site” to see what other interesting things you can find to help determine what to do with instructional practices for all students:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
-
- 1.Lynn Morgan helped set up the system for student testing
 - 2.The results are available to you 24 hours after student takes test
 - 3.Share the results with every teacher on the school team. Take the results and the “Skills Set and Planning Sheet” to work together for a plan for overall student growth.

Scotland School of Health Services